REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

JANUARY 1, 1899—JULY 31, 1900.

To the President and Fellows of Yale University:

GENTLEMEN:—From 1868 to 1886 the report of the Librarian was included in the annual statement issued by the Executive Committee of the Society of the Alumni under the title “Yale College in 1868,” etc. From 1887 to 1899 it was appended to the Report of the President of the University, and is now for the first time submitted in a separate form. In view of the change of date about to be made from the calendar year to the financial year of the University commencing August 1st, the present report has been brought down from January 1, 1899, the date of the last report, to July 31, 1900. The somewhat longer period here covered will explain the lack of agreement between the accessions now reported and the number given in the Report of the President issued at Commencement.

During the past nineteen months the additions to the Library by purchase, including 900 volumes placed in the Linonian and Brothers Library, have been 12,235 volumes, and by gift 10,275 volumes and 20,150 pamphlets.

The Library fund has also been increased by a gift of $1,000 from President Dwight, to be called in memory of his father the James Dwight fund, and by a gift of $682.25 from the Junior Promenade Committee of the Class of 1899.

Two gifts of money for present use have also been received,—$1,195 from Professor Edward E. Salisbury for additions to the Salisbury Oriental collection, especially in the department of Assyriology, and $500 from an anonymous donor for the increase of our collection of folk-music.

Among the bequests of the late Professor Marsh to the University was his valuable library, comprising about 5,000 volumes and 10,000 pamphlets, and especially strong in the department of palæontology. Under the provisions of his will, by which duplicates of works already in the University Library were to go to the Peabody Museum, the portion falling to the Library was approximately one-third. It included such important series and monographs as the following: Palaeontographica, 33 vols., Palaeontological Society of London, 1862-1898; Leonhard and Bronn's Jahrbuch für Mineralogie, etc., 99 vols.; Geological Magazine, 36 vols.; Transactions of the Zoological Society of London, 11 vols.; Transactions of the Odontological Society of Great Britain, 31 vols.; Annales des sciences géologiques, 20 vols.; Blainville, Ostéographie; Cuvier, Recherches sur les ossements fossiles; Deshayes, Description des animaux sans vertèbres, and Description des coquilles fossiles; Pictet, Matériaux pour la paléontologie suisse; Gaudry, Animaux fossiles et géologie d'Attique; Van Beneden and Gervais, Ostéographie des cétacés; Meyer, Zur Fauna der Vorwelt; Goldfuss, Petrefacta Germaniae; Quenstedt, Petrefactenkunde Deutschlands; Eichwald, Lethæa Rossica; Fritsch, Fauna der Gaskohle und der Kalksteine der Permformation Böhmens; Eyton, Osteologia avium; Audubon, Birds of America, 8°; Audubon and Bachman, Quadrupeds of North America, 8°; Wilson and Bonaparte, American Ornithology, with folio volume of plates; Buller, Birds of New Zealand; Sanders, Reichenbachia, 4 vols. fol.; Audsley, Ornamental arts of Japan; Goussier, L'art japonais; Gérôme, Works, 100 photogravures, fol.

To the important contributions already received from the library of Professor James D. Dana by gift and bequest, additions amounting to more than two thousand volumes, chiefly publications of learned societies, have now been made by the family. They embrace many important series, American and foreign, and though largely duplicates will bring us valuable returns in exchanges with other libraries. To Professor Edward S. Dana a separate acknowledgment is due for other valuable gifts.

Among the more noteworthy of the remaining gifts are the following:

From General Alfred P. Rockwell, of Manchester, Mass.—Six hundred volumes, including the American Journal of Science and Arts, 1861-85, 50 vols.; Bulletin de la Société géologique de France, 2<sup>e</sup> sér., 29 vols.; Annales des mines, 1845-59, 35 vols.; Transactions of the North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers, vol. 1-18. With the books came also a marble bust of Benjamin Franklin, by Powers, the gift of Mrs. Rockwell and Mr. Lawrence Godkin.

From Mr. William C. Minor, M.D. (Y. C. 1863).—The second folio of Shakespeare, a good copy and the only one of the folios which we as yet possess.

From Rev. Edwin P. Parker, D.D., of Hartford.—Three hundred and fifty-seven volumes, chiefly theological, from the library of the late Professor Samuel Harris, D.D.

From Mr. John Howard Webster, of Cleveland, O.—Thirty-four volumes of the Jesuit Relations, in continuation, and two Rowfant Club publications.

From Charlton T. Lewis, Ph.D., of New York.—One hundred and ninety-seven volumes, for the most part classical and philological.

From Rev. Edward B. Coe, D.D., of New York.—Seventy-two volumes, chiefly of Romance philology.

By bequest of the late Sigismond Waterman, M.D., of New York.—Two hundred and fifteen volumes of medical books.

From Mr. Charles Stillman, of New York.—Appleton's Scientific Library, 60 vols.

From Messrs. Henry Holt & Co., of New York.—Fifty-eight volumes of their current publications.

From Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff.—Sixty-three volumes of New York State documents.

From Justice David J. Brewer, LL.D.—The British documents in the Guiana boundary case, 14 volumes.

From Professor George E. Day, D.D., of Yale University.—One hundred and seventy-nine volumes, including an interesting group of books on the history of Leyden.

From Professor A. Jay Du Bois, Ph.D.—Eighty-four volumes, comprising nearly complete sets of the Transactions of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and the American Society of Mining Engineers.

From Professor Thomas R. Lounsbury, LL.D.—The Philistine, 10 vols., and seven other volumes.

From Professor Henry W. Farnam, R.P.D.—Eleven current volumes, in continuation, of economic periodicals.

From Professor John S. Ely, M.D.—Fifty volumes, including Fortschritte der Medicin, vol. 1-14.

From Mrs. Henry Farnam, of New Haven.—Binion's Ancient Egypt, 2 vols. fol.

From Mrs. Isham Henderson, of New Haven.—Duray's History of Rome, 8 vols.

From Mr. Francis B. Trowbridge, of New Haven.—Seventy volumes, and in addition thirty-eight volumes from the estate of his father, the late Thomas R. Trowbridge.

From Mrs. George F. Newcomb, of New Haven.—An unpublished letter of Benjamin Franklin to Rev. Samuel Johnson, D.D., of Stratford, containing a brief account of the young Academy at Philadelphia which at a later day was to grow into the University of Pennsylvania.

From Mr. George W. Egleston.—Two large engravings, framed, of the British fleet at the siege of Havana in 1762, an expedition in which Connecticut troops took part.

A duplicate of the bronze bust of the late William F. Poole, LL.D., placed in the Newberry Library, Chicago, by the American Library Association, has been presented by the family.

By the kind efforts of Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., of New Haven, more than five hundred of the diocesan journals of the Protestant Episcopal Church have been added to our collection.

Four years ago we acquired from the library gathered in the early part of this century by William Lyon, a New Haven merchant, seven volumes of the Mercurius Politicus, a weekly Commonwealth newspaper published in London from September 1650 to April 1660. It must have been the same set of "six or seven volumes" which President Stiles, as we learn from his diary, borrowed in 1794 from the "old Davenport library" in Stamford. An additional volume, exactly filling a gap in our series and bearing unmistakable marks of a former common ownership, has now by the gift of Mr. G. Clinton Williams, of West Woodstock, Conn., been reunited to its fellows after a separation of more than a hundred years. A complete set we have been unable to trace. Ours lacks about one-third of the numbers, chiefly in the earlier portion, but contains all that are wanting in the British Museum copy.

Worthy of special mention also are the following gifts which have come to us from abroad :

From the Duc de Loubat, Paris.—Facsimiles of three Mexican manuscripts, Codicæ Messicano di Bologna, Manoscritto Messicano Vaticano 3738, and Codex Telleriano-Remensis.

From the Royal Library, Berlin.—Facsimile of the Mexican manuscripts of Alexander von Humboldt in the Royal Library.

From M<sup>me</sup> V<sup>ve</sup> Godin, an Familistère, Guise.—A complete set of Le Devoir, 23 vols.

From the British Museum.—Nine volumes of Natural History catalogues.

From the John Rylands Library, Manchester.—Catalogue of the Printed Books and Manuscripts, 3 vols.

From the Rt. Hon. Earl Cowper.—Cartularium monasterii Sancti Johannis Baptiste de Colecestria, 2 vols.

From the Fridtjof Nansen Fund, Christiania.—Scientific Results of the Norwegian North Polar Expedition, vol. I.

From the government of Venezuela.—The Venezuelan documents in the Guiana boundary case, 10 vols.

Also from the Universities of Basel, Berlin, Bonn, Breslau, Erlangen, Göttingen, Halle, Heidelberg, Jena, Kiel, Königsberg, Marburg, Montpellier, St. Petersburg, Strassburg and Tokyo, their dissertations or publications as printed.

Among the more important of the purchases are the following :

History and Geography. Coleccion de documentos ineditos para la historia de España, 52 vols.; Documentos del archivo de la corona de Aragon, 40 vols.; Ordonnances des rois de France, 23 vols. fol.; Vie and Vaissette, Histoire générale de Languedoc, 15 vols. 4°; Archivalische Zeitschrift, 17 vols.; Archiv der Gesellschaft für aeltere deutsche Geschichte, 33 vols.; Geschichtschreiber der deutschen Vorzeit, 90 vols.; Codex diplomaticus Brandenburgensis, 41 vols. 4°; Scriptores rerum Silesiacarum, 16 vols. 4°; Zeitschrift für Geschichte und Alterthum Schlesiens, 34 vols.; Urkundenbuch zur Geschichte der Herzöge von Braunschweig und Lüneberg, 11

Political Science. De Economist, 48 vols.; De Indische Gids, 42 vols.; Nationalökonomisk tidsskrift, 37 vols.; Gazette nationale, ou le Moniteur universel 1789-1842, 104 vols. fol.; Journal des débats, 1802-1841, 84 vols. fol.

Mathematics, Physics, Natural History, etc. Rendiconti del Circolo matematico di Palermo, 11 vols.; Journal of the Society of chemical industry, 14 vols.; Ramon de La Sagra, Historia fisica, politica y natural de Cuba, 14 vols. fol.; Wissenschaftliche Mittheilungen aus Bosnien und der Hercegovina, 5 vols.; Jahrbuch der kgl. preussischen geologischen Landesanstalt, 14 vols.; Engler and Prantl, Die natürlichen Pflanzenfamilien, Lief. 1-197; Archivio per l'antropologia e l'etnologia, 28 vols.; Seebohm, British birds, 4 vols.; Bullettino della Società entomologica italiana, 24 vols.; Tijdschrift uitg. door de nederlandsche entomologische Vereeniging, 35 vols.; Transactions of the Entomological Society of London, 40 vols. During the past twelve months the number of books borrowed from the Library, not counting the over-night issue of reserved books, has been a little more than 43,000, a number differing little from that of the preceding twelve months. But in the use of books in the library building, both in the general reading-room and by graduate students having access to the shelves, there has been a very manifest increase.

Professor Dexter having retired from the secretaryship of the University, the duties of which he so long added to his library work, the Library now has the great advantage of his undivided services.

The Library has also secured a valuable addition to its staff in Mr. Andrew Keogh, late sub-librarian of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Public Libraries, who at the opening of the College year took charge of the Linonian and Brothers Library. During the coming year, while retaining some of the more important duties of that position, he will act also as reference librarian of the University Library.

The average annual growth of the Library for the past four years has been 13,000 volumes. It needs little computation to show that the capacity of our present building must soon prove unequal to the demands of such a growth. The pressure for shelf-room is already felt, not to speak of other serious wants which were left to be provided for in the future extension of the building, one of the most important of which is a suitable cataloguing room. If this extension could be undertaken at once it would be of the greatest advantage to the Library.

The second of the two appendices which follow contains a report of the Law School Library, which is not included in the foregoing report.

Respectfully submitted,

ADDISON VAN NAME.

APPENDIX II.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE LAW SCHOOL.

During the period from January 1, 1899 to July 31, 1900, 962 volumes and 25 pamphlets have been added to the library. Of these 313 volumes and all the pamphlets were gifts.

Samuel R. Betts, Esq., of New York, gave a collection of English and American reports and treatises, being a part of the library of the late Samuel R. Betts, United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York. From Mr. B. Frank Nead of Harrisburg, a student in the Law School, we have received the Pennsylvania Statutes at Large in five volumes and the Colonial and Provincial Laws of Pennsylvania in one volume. M. Dwight Collier, Esq., of New York, has continued his practice of former years by supplying all the reports of the supreme court and court of appeals of Missouri published during the eighteen months. From the late Henry C. Robinson of Hartford we received Moore's Rebellion Record in twelve volumes; from Hon. N. D. Sperry of New Haven, Moore's History and Digest of International Arbitrations in six volumes; from T. L. Bayne, Esq., of New Orleans, Las Siete Partidas in three volumes; from the Connecticut State Library, Printed Bills (Connecticut) 1887-1899 in eleven volumes; from the International Law Association, an incomplete file of their Proceedings in four volumes. Among the purchases are collections of modern works on Roman Law and on International Law.

Work on the short-title card index has progressed. About 9000 volumes have been catalogued during the period covered by this report in addition to about 2000 volumes which had been catalogued before. About 4000 volumes remain to be catalogued, and of these the more important are on the shelves of the reading room where their location is generally known.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP P. WELLS.

Gifts to the Law School Library from January 1, 1899 to June 30, 1900.
